About Better Lives Partnership (SCIO SC046597)

Better Lives Partnership became a registered Scottish Charity (SCIO 046597) on the 1st of June 2016. The main aim of the organisation is to develop a range of opportunities for children and young people with autism spectrum conditions and related disabilities as well as families, carers and practitioners who support them.

Based in Castle Douglas, Better Lives Partnership aims to work across Dumfries & Galloway providing opportunities for young people who are unable to access existing routes in education or employment after leaving school. We are looking to explore whether there is demand in Annandale and Eskdale to develop a Bridge to Employment Project based in Annan.

If you know a young person who is in S4 or above and is not sure what the future holds or has left school and has been unable to move on due to their additional support needs or some other barrier, find out more by coming along for a chat
